

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We are able to get through a meal without being interrupted by solicitors. We used to receive around 12-15 calls per week and now only receive around 1-2. My husband is a fireman and each time the phone rings we think it may be a call for him to go out. Before, it was so aggravating to worry each time the phone rang and find out it was just a solicitor. A lot of those callers would not take no for an answer. I just do not want to go back to receiving anymore than 1 -2 calls a week.
